BIDEN'S "LIBERTICIDE"

Biden Officials 'Relentless' in Pressuring Social Media Companies to Censor COVID Content

The authors of a Wall Street Journal op-ed published Sunday called out the "relentless, coercive pressure" the White House put on social media companies to censor COVID-19-related information that contradicted the government and mainstream media narrative.

The authors of a Wall Street Journal op-ed published Sunday called out the "relentless, coercive pressure" the White House put on social media companies to censor COVID-19-related information that contradicted the government and mainstream media narrative.

Jenin Younes and Dr. Aaron Kheriaty detailed key parts of an email exchange between Robert Flaherty, the White House's director of digital strategy and social media executives.

The emails emerged Jan. 6 in the discovery phase of Missouri v. Biden, a free-speech lawsuit brought by the attorneys general of Missouri and Louisiana and four private plaintiffs represented by the New Civil Liberties Alliance.

Younes is litigation counsel at the New Civil Liberties Alliance and represents the private plaintiffs in Missouri v. Biden. Kheriaty is a psychiatrist and author of three books, a senior scholar at the Brownstone Institute and a fellow at the Ethics and Public Policy Center and one of the plaintiffs.

The emails are the latest in a slew of evidence — made public through lawsuits, Freedom of Information Act requests and the Twitter Files — that emerged in the last few months exposing "a sprawling censorship regime involving the White House, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, the Department of Homeland Security, the FBI and other agencies."

In their op-ed, Younes and Kheriaty cited the text of emails between Flaherty and a Facebook executive. Flaherty accuses Facebook of being "one of the top drivers of vaccine hesitancy" and demands to know how the social media platform is working to change this on Facebook and WhatsApp.

Facebook responded with an extensive list of policy changes, including to "removing vaccine misinformation," "reducing the virality of content discouraging vaccines that does not contain actionable misinformation" and removing accounts "systematically" that they acknowledged as "often true content."

Unsatisfied with the results, Flaherty continued to pressure Facebook:

> "Mr. Flaherty pressed the executive about why the top post about vaccines today is Tucker Carlson 'saying they don't work': 'I want to know what 'Reduction' actually looks like,' he said. The exec responded: 'Running this down now.'"

The documents reveal that Flaherty "also strong-armed Google in April 2021, accusing YouTube (which is owned by Google) of 'tweeting' people into vaccine hesitancy. He said this concern was 'shared at the highest (and I mean the highest) levels of the WH and required 'more work to be done.'"

Younes and Kheriaty also pointed out that President Biden, then-press secretary Jen Psaki and Surgeon General Dr. Vivek Murthy publicly vowed to hold the platforms accountable if they didn't heighten censorship.

They wrote:

> "On July 16, 2021, a reporter asked Mr. Biden his 'message to platforms like Facebook.' He replied, 'They're killing people.' Mr. Biden later claimed he meant users, not platforms, were killing people. But the record shows Facebook staff was the target of the White House's pressure campaign."

According to Younes and Kheriaty, the recently uncovered emails establish a clear pattern of the White House, represented by Flaherty, expressing anger at the companies' failure to satisfactorily censor COVID-19 content. The companies changed their policies in response to his demands.

"As a result of that unconstitutional state action, Americans were given the false impression of a scientific consensus" on critically important issues around Covid-19," the authors of the op-ed wrote. "A reckoning for the government's unlawful, deceptive and dangerous conduct is under way in court."

Biden has long been a corporate stooge... So his latest sucking up to the pharmaceutical industry is hardly surprising.

Well, I think this nation come together in PRAYER for Damar Hamlin, just like we did after 9-11. That also report that we will be next. Path good for a few days then!!!!! This nation will never wake up and realize we can beat this crap if we come together in the Fight. Just easier to fight with each other while the globalist laugh their assess off. Just like they have planned for decades.

Too bad, Biden. People are waking up at an enormous speed. I believe there is some quote from the Bible about the TRUTH being shouted from the stones meaning the TRUTH can never be silenced however hid matter how much they try and shut it down. The ITRUTH is out there. The Truth is in the air. The Truth is in the underwater. It is impossible to hide it to the surface for ALL TO SEE. There is no stopping it, wiseking Simon Biden.

Even if the courts agree that the government violated the Constitution and the First Amendment, the government will continue to do what they pay to people like Mr. Flaherty so that his accountants will not regret this behavior. Can the courts end Mr. Flaherty to prison if he is convicted?

I can tell you what they're NOT doing: supporting Ukraine in the war with Russia. Remember that? And for us saving the doctor that saved their sorry asses by giving them ivermectin for their Covid. Luckily, the country is standing by the doctor and keeping him on staff.

The ACLU is now a Marxist organization. They supported full-force mandates.
"Far from compromising civil liberties, vaccine mandates actually further them. By reducing the transmission of disease, they help people avoid hospitalizations and long-term suffering and help keep systems, children too young to be vaccinated, and communities of color hit hard by the disease."

Nevermind that that is no isolated/purified v-has to begin with. It is all a mirage.

The arrogance of the "we know what's best for you" is the height of hypocrisy. The Democratic Party, supposedly representing democracy for all, takes that freedom from all Americans. Democrats are the party of "I know what's best for you" and are served by pushing these hazy things "I know is that freedom and informed consent are not homogeneous."

Is There a COVID Covid-19 Vaccines Lead to New Infections and Mortality: The Evidence is Overwhelming Country Case Studies, Mortality and Morbidity
6.4 Million reported "adverse events". But only a small fraction of the victims or families of the deceased will go through the tedious process of reporting vaccine-related deaths and adverse events to the national health authorities. Those death and injury figures (EU, UK, US) SHOW are at least ten times higher than the official reported cases. 410,000 deaths, 66 million injuries out of a population of approximately 850 million.

Ask yourself: what is the vested interest for the Biden regime to censor Covid information? It isn't to protect people. Not by an administration so going to so to abort defenseless babies right up until delivery. It because the Scamdemic - masks, lockdowns, mRNA jabs - are responsible for our most damaging emergency powers to exert control.
